Competition Rules

Art 1

The recipes must be of Italian origins.

The entries must be home made.

Art. 2

There are three categories:

- Antipasti freddi: cold pasta or rice salads, stuffed vegetables, etc..
- Pizze o torte salate: pizzas, quiches, pie, focaccia bread, etc...
- Dolci: desserts at your choice

Art. 3

Each participant has to bring the dish ready to be shown. To verify the paternity of the dish, the participant will be “interrogated” by the Triunvirato De Iustitia Coquinaria. Each participant must fill in the enrolment form which will include providing:

- a fantasy name for the prepared dish;
- ingredients and quantities;
- preparation description;
- dish description (history, anecdotes, curiosities, etc..)

Art. 4

The dishes will be judged by a commission composed of 5 members:

- President of Società Dante Alighieri
- a gourmand
- a chef
- a young person
- a student of Dante Alighieri

The Triunvirato De Iustitia Coquinaria is composed of President of Società Dante Alighieri, the gourmand and the chef.

Three awards will be assigned: best Antipasto freddo, best Torta salata, best Dolce. A special award, the “Sorriso di Dante” (Dante’s smile), will be given to the most original and funny name among the competing dishes.

Art 5

Judges will be instructed to judge each entry on

- Taste 45%
- Execution 20%
- Appearance 15%
- Name of the recipe 10%
- Originality of description 10%

The numbering will rank from 1 to 10 in each of the five evaluations.
